1 WHEREAS, on March 26, 2010, plaintiffs Just Film, Inc., Rainbow Business Services
 2 d/b/a Precision Tune Auto Care, Volker von Glasenapp and Jerry Su filed a class action
 3 complaint against 35 defendants in the Superior Court of the County of San Francisco, Case No.
 4 CGC-10-498225 (the “action”);

5 WHEREAS, a number of the defendants in the action have been served, including,
 6 Merchant Services, Inc., Universal Card, Inc., National Payment Processing, Inc., Atlas Payment
 7 Processing, SPC, Inc. d/b/a/ First National Merchants Solutions, MBF Leasing, LLC, MBF
 8 Merchant Capital, LLC, Northern Funding, LLC, Northern Leasing Systems, Inc., Golden Eagle
 9 Leasing, LLC, Lease Finance Group, LLC, United Bank Card, Inc., Congress Financial 10 Corporation, TransFirst Holdings, Inc., TransFirst, LLC, TransFirst Third Party Sales, LLC, First
 11 National Bank of Omaha, Columbus Bank and Trust Company, Merrick Bank, Fifth Third Bank,
 12 RBL Capital Group, LLC, William Healy, Jay Cohen, Rich Hahn, Sara Krieger, Jason Moore,
 13 Lina Kravic, Sam Buono, Fiona Walshe and Eric Madura (collectively, the “Served Defendants”);

14 WHEREAS, the dates of service on the Served Defendants range from early to late April 15 2010;

16 WHEREAS, some of the defendants in the action may remain unserved;

17 WHEREAS, on May 7, 2010, the Served Defendants removed the action to this Court,
 18 pursuant to Title 28, Sections 1441 and 1453 of the United States Code;

19 WHEREAS, pursuant to Rule 81(c)(2) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, the range
 20 in dates of service on the Served Defendants may create a range in deadlines for the Served 21 Defendants to answer or otherwise respond to the complaint herein, and a similar range in 22 associated briefing schedules;

23 WHEREAS, the parties believe a coordinated and extended deadline for the Served
 24 Defendants to answer or otherwise respond to the complaint will conserve resources and promote 25 judicial economy;

26 WHEREAS, given the large number of parties and the potential complexity of the issues
 27 presented, the parties further believe that a coordinated and extended briefing schedule with 28

1 respect to any responsive motions filed by the Served Defendants is warranted and also will
 2 conserve resources and promote judicial economy;

3 WHEREAS, pursuant to Civil Local Rule 6-1(a), the parties believe a stipulation may be
 4 sufficient, without Court order, to coordinate and extend the deadline for the Served Defendants
 5 to answer or otherwise respond to the complaint, but, pursuant to Civil Local Rule 6-2(a), a Court
 6 order may be necessary to extend the associated briefing schedule;

7 WHEREAS, the parties wish to delay any Rule 26(f) conference until after the initial
 8 hearing on any motions in response to the complaint, except for matters on which limited
 9 discovery may be appropriate with respect to such motions, such as motions to dismiss for lack of 10 personal jurisdiction; and

11 WHEREAS, to save paper, fuel and expenses, and to reduce environmental harm, the 12 parties further believe it appropriate to exchange all correspondence, discovery and pleadings in 13 the action via electronic mail ("email").

14 NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY STIPULATED, by and between the 15 undersigned parties, through their respective counsel of record, pursuant to Civil Local Rules 6-16 1(a) and 6-2(a) and Rules 6 and 26 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, as follows:

17 1. If any Served Defendants intend to respond to the complaint with motions rather 18 than answers, such Served Defendants shall meet and confer with Plaintiffs regarding the bases
 19 for such anticipated motions no later than May 21, 2010, and, to the extent such motions concern
 20 matters (such as lack of personal jurisdiction) for which limited discovery may be sought prior to 21 the hearing on the motions, to meet and confer under Rule 26(f) as to the scope and timing of 22 such limited discovery;

23 2. Plaintiffs shall inform Served Defendants no later than May 28, 2010 whether 24 Plaintiffs intend to re-plead or otherwise preemptively respond to such anticipated motions;

25 3. Served Defendants, and any other defendants served on or before May 4, 2010, 26 shall answer or otherwise respond to the complaint no later than June 4, 2010, and shall set any 27 motions filed in response to the complaint for hearing on July 30, 2010 or the next available
 28 Court day on which the assigned judge is hearing civil motions;

4. Plaintiffs shall oppose any such motions filed in response to the complaint no later than July 2, 2010;

5. Served Defendants shall reply to any such oppositions no later than July 16, 2010;

6. Unless otherwise ordered by the Court, no Rule 26(f) conference shall be held prior to the initial hearing on any motions filed in response to the complaint, except for any conference focusing on the limited discovery issues set forth in paragraph 1 hereof;

7. On or before August 15, 2010, or within seven days of the Court's ruling on any motions filed in response to the complaint, whichever is later, all defendants as to whom the complaint has not been dismissed with prejudice shall participate in a joint telephonic meet and confer session with Plaintiffs regarding the items set forth in Rule 26(f) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure;

8. The parties need not separately serve any pleading or document that is filed through the Court's Electronic Case Filing (ECF) system, rather, service of such pleading or document will be deemed complete on the day of filing by way of the ECF system's automatic email notification. The parties are excused from any duty under section IX(C)(2) of General Order 45 to serve paper copies of any filing on any other party;

9. With respect to all pleadings, discovery requests and responses and correspondence not filed through the ECF system (including documents filed under seal in paper format), the following provisions shall apply:

a. The parties shall serve, and accept service, of all pleadings, discovery requests and responses and correspondence via email. Emails shall have a subject line that includes the phrase "Just Film v Merchant Services" and the subject of the email (example: Just Film v Merchant Services – Plaintiff's Initial Disclosures);

b. Items sent by email prior to 6:00 p.m. shall be treated as though personally served on that day; items sent by email after 6:00 p.m. or on a Saturday, Sunday or legal holiday shall be treated as though personally served as of the next day thereafter on which the Court is open (for example, items emailed on a Saturday will be deemed personally served as of the next Monday, assuming that Monday is not a legal holiday). The parties waive the provisions of Rule 6(d) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure;

c. Signed versions of pleadings, discovery requests and responses and correspondence shall be served in .pdf format. The text of all discovery requests and responses shall additionally be served in .doc format;

d. The parties shall be served at the email addresses provided in the signature blocks herein; and

e. Any additional counsel who subsequently file an appearance in this matter shall provide the undersigned counsel with such additional counsel's email address. Following such notice, additional counsel shall also be served by email pursuant to paragraph 9 hereof.
